ALDESSES, Monday, Feb. 8.—A Ohlo-The Black Laws-Capital Punishme Excise Law-A Political Row, &c.

. Correspondence of The Tribune you, and through you, your readers, that the initial tory step toward the repeal of the abominable Black Laws of this State has just been taken. The House, a few minutes since, passed a bill submitting the question of the repeal of these Laws to the People at the next Spring Election. This is a of Portage.) voting for it. I do not see how the Senate can refuse to concur. What will be the result, if the bill should pass. I am unprepared to say, but have an abiding faith in the justice of the Pro-terday called up, and was discussed nearly all night—the House adjourning at 3 o'clock this mornwote, after having been ordered to its third reading.

Were it not for some of the details of the bill, which certain members deem exceptionable, it would surely pass. Another session will witness the success of the measure. Is it not a singular

A bill identical in principle, and substantially the A bill identical in principle, and substantially the same in detail, with that passed by the Legislature of New-York last Winter, submitting the question of retailing or vending Intoxicating Liquors to the voters of each Election District in the State, has passed the House by the heavy majority of 47 to 13! I think there is no doubt that it will pass the Senate also by a similar decisive vote.

You must not be surprised to hear of an Extra Sensing called as two as the Legislature adjourned.

bought of Mr. M. in 1846, a Bill of Exchange for £1000 sterling, at 60 days sight, drawn on Major & Wallace London, for which they paid $4827.77. The Bill was accepted by M. & W. but not paid. Suit is brought against the drawer to recover the amount. Some technical objections were raised, such as whether the parties named as composing the firm of plaintiffs really formed the firm, also whether the Sheffield Bank to which the Bill was sent had discounted and consequent by owned it, or whether it had been sent to them for collection, &c. It was also said a dividend from the secentor's extact had been used on the Bill. There were
